DETAILED PRAYER BURDENS

International: The Lord's Move in Greece (see report below)

- ❖ Pray that the Lord will gain the right and useful vessels for His recovery in Greece, particularly that He will gain young brothers who have a good command of the English language so that they can be constituted with the wealth of the ministry that is available in English.
- ❖ Pray that the Lord will gain an open home in Thessaloniki where the ministry readers and seekers can meet regularly and with the proper brothers who can take the lead to help them.
- ❖ Pray that the Lord will release the residence visas for the co-workers in a timely way.

Follow-up of Rhema Contacts throughout Europe

- ❖ Please continue to pray that the Lord will have mercy on the readers of the free literature distributed by Rhema and will shepherd many of them through the local saints and full-timers into the church life.

Local: Irvine

- ❖ Pray that the saints in every district would be burdened to endeavor in vital groups to be brought into a daily living of being filled with the Spirit to live a life of ministering and dispensing Christ to both believers and unbelievers.

REPORT FROM GREECE

Dear saints,

We were very impressed with the sharing from the Thanksgiving Day conference messages regarding prayer, and particularly how Brother Lee prayed for the Lord's recovery in the United States. The direction of our prayers has recently been focused on the Lord gaining the right and useful vessels for His recovery here in Greece, particularly that He would bring young brothers who have a good command of the English language so that they could be constituted with the wealth of the ministry available in this language.

With this in mind, a number of us will be traveling to Thessaloniki next week to contact several of the readers of the ministry there. We will have an "open house" type gathering where these readers can come together to fellowship and be in the ministry. They are also encouraged to bring those whom they feel may be interested, and our prayer is that the Lord would bring some of these young seeking ones. Our desire is that the Lord would be able to take a concrete step this year in Thessaloniki by gaining a completely open home where these ministry readers and seekers can meet regularly, with the proper brothers who could take the lead to help them do this.

Last, we are still waiting for our residence permits to be released. We have a strong desire to be able to attend the corporate gatherings of the saints, particularly the International Conference and the European Brothers Training in London. We believe these times are crucial to us for the mutual supply, blending, and fellowship. Without a renewed residence permit, however, we are not allowed to leave the country except to travel to the United States. We are so very grateful that we are not here by ourselves. We are so thankful that you are standing with us. May the Lord gain something particular in Greece in 2013!

Yours in Him,
The serving ones in Greece

TESTIMONIES FROM IRVINE-SENT AND IRVINE-RELATED TRAINEES

We continue reporting testimonies written by our Irvine-sent and Irvine-related trainees regarding their enjoyment and experience in the FTTA for the encouragement and exhortation of all the saints.

Dearest saints,

Pre-training is over and today is officially the beginning of my second term in the FTTA. Quite simply, I enjoyed being emptied out and revived every day during pre-training. Our sweet and precious Lord Jesus waits all through the night, every night, for us to wake up in the morning and spend time with Him.

One question a brother asked us in a class was, "why is the Lord not back?" The Lord is not back because the Body has not been built up. But what does this have to do with us? Every day, we need to speak to the Lord, stay in His presence, be soaked and saturated with Him and dispense Him into all the saints. Bit by bit, the Body of Christ can be built up and we hasten the Lord's return.

Please keep praying for all the trainees—that we would be open to His dispensing and His perfecting. Much to grace to you all!
Melody Wang
