WORD OF THE WEEK: "REMEMBER"

Pray Over These Key Verses...

Deut. 5:15: And you shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt and that Jehovah your God brought you out from there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm; hence, Jehovah your God commanded you to hold the Sabbath day.

Psa. 63:6: When I remember You while on my bed, / When I consider You in the night watches.

Psa. 77:11: I will bring to remembrance the deeds of Jehovah, / For I will remember Your wonders from of old.

Psa. 119:55: I have remembered Your name / In the night, O Jehovah, / And have kept Your law.

John 16:4: But these things I have spoken to you that when their hour comes you may remember them, that I told you of them. Now these things I have not said to you from the beginning, because I was with you.

Read Some Helpful Ministry...

Psalm 119:132 says, "Look thou upon me, and be merciful unto me, as thou usest to do unto those that love thy name."

This verse indicates that the psalmist loved the Lord's name. Verse 55 says, "I have remembered thy name, O Jehovah, in the night, and have kept thy law" (Heb.). When the psalmist awoke during the night, he remembered the Lord's name. What we remember in the night reveals our true interest, even the thing that occupies us. What do you think of when you wake up at night? If you are one who seeks God, you will remember His name. His name will be your special interest. Young people, I hope that when you awake during the night, you will not dwell on worldly things, but will remember the sweet, precious name of the Lord. Like the Old Testament saints, may we all love the Lord's name and remember it, even in the middle of the night. (Life-Study of Exodus, Message 56, pp. 658-659)

In Paul's word about shadows we have a hint as to how we may enjoy Christ in a practical way. Since such things as eating and drinking are shadows of which Christ is the substance and reality, we need to be reminded whenever we eat and drink that the real food and the real drink are Christ. When you eat your food, you should simultaneously eat Christ. When you drink some beverage, you should also drink Christ. As you put on your clothing, you should be reminded that Christ is the real clothing, and you should experience Him as such. As you put on your material clothing, you should also put on Christ. It is easy to enjoy Christ in this way. Whatever we do day by day should remind us of Christ as the reality of that thing. Even our breathing should remind us of the necessity of breathing Christ spiritually.

If we follow the practice of taking Christ as the reality of all the material things in our daily life, our daily walk will be revolutionized and transformed. It will be full of Christ. When we eat and drink, we shall take Christ as our spiritual food and drink. Everything we do will remind us to contact Christ, to enjoy Christ, to experience Christ, and to have Christ as our everything. To practice this day by day is truly to enjoy Christ. (Life-Study of Colossians, Message 55, p. 485)
