From The Conference Handout...

Scriptures: Exo. 12:14; Exo. 13:9; Exo. 16:32;
Exo. 16:33; Josh. 4:7

Footnotes: Exo 12:14¹; Exo 13:9¹; Exo 16:32¹

Hymns: 232, 214

Pray Over These Key Verses...

Exo. 12:14: And this day will be a memorial to you, and you shall keep it as a feast to Jehovah; throughout your generations as a perpetual statute you shall keep it as a feast.

Exo. 13:9: And it shall be for a sign to you upon your hand and for a memorial between your eyes, that the law of Jehovah may be in your mouth; for with a mighty hand Jehovah brought you out of Egypt.

Exo. 16:32: And Moses said, This is what Jehovah has commanded, Let an omerful of it be kept throughout your generations, that they may see the bread which I fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you out from the land of Egypt.

Exo. 16:33: And Moses said to Aaron, Take a pot, and put an omerful of manna in it, and place it before Jehovah, to be kept throughout your generations.

Josh. 4:7: You shall tell them that the waters of the Jordan were cut off before the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah; when it crossed over the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. Thus these stones will be for a memorial to the children of Israel forever.

Read Some Helpful Footnotes...

Exo 12:14, note 1 (memorial): This indicates that we should remember Christ's redemption perpetually in a specific and detailed way.

Exo 16:32, note 1 (omerful): The open manna, the manna that lay on the ground every morning, was for the enjoyment of God's people in a public way. However, the omer of manna placed in a pot (v. 33) was hidden and was not for the congregation in a public way. The amount of manna kept in a pot before Jehovah was one omer, the same as the amount gathered and eaten by the people (vv. 16-18).

In spiritual experience, this indicates that the amount of Christ we eat is the amount we can preserve. The Christ whom we eat as open manna spontaneously becomes hidden manna by being digested and assimilated into our inner being. Furthermore, whatever we eat of Christ will become a memorial in generations to come. The Christ whom we eat and enjoy will be an eternal memorial, because such a Christ becomes our very constitution, enabling us to build up and even to become God's dwelling place in the universe.

Sing These Hymns...

Hymns #232 (stanzas 1 – 2)

1. By Christ redeemed, in Christ restored,
We keep the memory adored,
And show the death of our dear Lord
Until He come.
2. His body broken in our stead
Is seen in this memorial bread,
And so our feeble love is fed
Until He come.

Hymns #214 (stanzas 1 – 2)

1. According to Thy gracious word,
In meek humility,
This will I do, my dying Lord,
I will remember Thee.
2. Thy body, broken for my sake,
My bread from heaven shall be;
Thy testamental cup I take,
And thus remember Thee.
