DETAILED PRAYER BURDENS

National: GTCA 2011 Sowing Trips

- ☉ Pray that there would be the adequate ministry of prayer in all the churches to pave the way for the Lord to raise up His testimony in all the targeted cities
- ☉ Continue to pray that all the means of mass media used to “till” the ground in the hearts of men would be effective to open a wide door for the word of the gospel in every city.
- ☉ Pray for the saints who will participate in these sowing trips—their being prepared inwardly, their coordination, and their one accord.
- ☉ Pray that the sowing trips in February will vitalize the saints in the churches to be living and active for the Lord's interest and that the God-ordained way of begetting, nourishing, perfecting, and building would be practiced through vital groups in the churches in North America.

- ☉ Pray that the Lord will use GTCA to bring in a genuine spirit of the gospel in the daily living of the saints and that a burden for the Lord's increase and spread would be instilled in the saints in all the churches.

Local: Irvine

- ☉ Pray that the ministry of prayer would be built up in the church among all the saints—personally, in small groups, and corporately as the church.
- ☉ Pray for the English Community Work (ECW) that those giving themselves to this work would be vitalized and formed into vital groups to bear remaining fruit from those in the Irvine community.

YP WINTER GETAWAY REPORT

Last weekend, the Irvine YP's Winter Getaway was held at Idyllwild. The subject of the weekend was consecration. The YP enjoyed the time in the mountains, which included rich fellowship, a Bible bowl competition, and a hymn writing and singing presentation. The following is the overflow of some of the YP's enjoyment.

“This winter getaway was especially enjoyable because it was the last for me, and I wanted to milk all the enjoyment out of this time before I left. The first message about opportunity made me realize how easily time is wasted. I've heard the story of the ten virgins many times, yet this time the urgency of the story really struck me. In the blink of an eye I grew from a seventh grader to a high school senior. Now, with one semester left, I feel that my time in high school and junior high was not used as well as it could have been. However, I will never be able to go back to those times; I just need to look forward and hand the rest of my days to the Lord. If I've received anything from this getaway, it's that we need to give every day and every moment to the Lord, or else we will miss opportunity to do so. Hallelujah! We must redeem the time, lest we be left outside the feast.”—RW

“I enjoyed that the Lord gave His only Son to die on the cross for us. God had so much power He could have easily called for 12 legions of angels to destroy anyone. But instead He spent 6 hours on the cross while suffering from whippings, spitting and mocking and all of our sins being put on Him so we can be saved and cleansed.”—ZF

“During the winter getaway, I really enjoyed the matter of God's love. God died a gruesome death and endured all the pain when He could've ended the matter right then and there. I was really constrained to consecrate during this getaway because of this fact. Not only does God own us He is so loving that we should be constrained to give ourselves to Him. God gave His only Son's life just because He loves us. Also I enjoyed the sharing from older brothers which really gave me the feeling that I need to redeem the time to consecrate and grow in the Lord because we never get the time back—there will never be the second week of the second decade of the 2nd millennium again.”—TK

“During the winter getaway God really became new and fresh to me. I really saw the true meaning of consecration. Consecration is not a once in a lifetime experience it needs to be renewed day by day. Every day I want to come to the Lord and consecrate my day to Him, so that He can use me for His purpose. Also, I enjoyed that if we give ourselves unreservedly to Him then He can give Himself unreservedly to us! Lord, make me one who would give my whole being to You and for Your purpose. Use me Lord Jesus!”—EB

MINISTRY PORTION

THE ENACTMENT OF THE COVENANT

With Burnt Offerings and Peace Offerings

Exodus 24:5 says, "And he sent young men of the children of Israel, which offered burnt offerings, and sacrificed peace offerings of oxen unto Jehovah" (lit.). It is not difficult to understand the significance of these offerings. The burnt offering was for God's satisfaction. We were created by God for His satisfaction. However, because of the fall man has failed to satisfy God. Eventually Christ came as the second man and fully satisfied God. Thus, He could be the burnt offering to satisfy God.

After God was satisfied through the burnt offering, there could be peace between God and man. This peace depends on the peace offering. When man and God together enjoy Christ, there is mutual satisfaction and peace. Christ first became the burnt offering offered to God to satisfy Him, and then He became the peace offering to make peace between man and God. Eventually, Christ became a feast for God and man to enjoy mutually. This is the Christ who has redeemed us and terminated us and who is now replacing us. The more we are replaced by Christ in our experience, the more we become the burnt offering and the peace offering. Day by day we satisfy God and enjoy peace with Him as we feast on Christ with God and enjoy Him with God.

By our own efforts to keep the law it is impossible for us to satisfy God, to have peace with God, or to enjoy Christ with God. I say again that God did not give the law to His people with the intention that they observe it. God's intention is for the people to be replaced by Christ and to become a reflection of God. This is God's economy. We thank Him that in the recovery this has been made clear to us.
