DETAILED PRAYER BURDENS

International: International Chinese-speaking Conference

- ☉ Pray that the Lord would have a free way to speak all that is on His heart for His Body and that the brothers ministering His word would be fully covered from the enemy and fully supplied with His grace to receive and discharge the Lord's burden.
- ☉ Pray that the saints in all the churches in the Lord's recovery would eagerly receive the Lord's up-to-date speaking so that the churches could go on in one accord for the Lord's move on the earth.

National: GTCA Sowing Trips

- ☉ Pray for the continued shepherding of those who were contacted during the sowing trips that in every city there would be 2-3 homes that could become a "beachhead" for the Lord to establish a lampstand in each of the 30 cities.

- ☉ Pray that the effect of the sowing trips would be to vitalize the saints in the existing churches to live a life uniquely for the gospel.
- ☉ Pray that groups of saints would begin to pray and fellowship in a definite way to "adopt" additional cities (besides the 30 target cities) for the long-term "farming" labor of organic church-planting by the Body.

Local: Irvine—English-speaking Community Work

- ☉ Pray that those giving themselves to the English-speaking Community Work would have the Lord's leading as they are blended and coordinated together for the gaining of typical Americans in Irvine.
- ☉ Pray that the whole church would be in one accord in supporting this work that the Lord would be able to pour out His blessing upon the church.

ENGLISH COMMUNITY WORK UPDATE

To have a good beginning in the English community work, a small group of saints from each hall will begin meeting in a family's home during the second half of the Lord's Day morning. Please stand with these saints who will be praying and fellowshiping concerning how to provide a comfortable environment on Lord's Day morning to bring contacts from among the English-speaking community.

If you are burdened to participate in the coordination or desire to eventually bring a contact of yours to a Lord's Day gathering like this, please fellowship with the appropriate brother from your hall:

Hall 1: Craig Birchler—949-302-2468

Hall 2: Mark Niu—949-394-9442

Hall 3: Dave Beckman—949-300-7451

MINISTRY PORTION

The Vision of the Tabernacle and Its Furniture

Concerning the Materials and the Pattern

The more I study the book of Exodus, the more I love it. Through my reading of this book, I have discovered that it is a book not only on the exodus, but also on God's dwelling place. The title of the book—Exodus—was not given by Moses. It was given by others years later. This title is not all-inclusive, for it covers only part of the contents of the book of Exodus. In the first part of this book we are told how God redeemed His people and enabled them to make their exodus out of Egypt and thereby to escape the tyranny of Pharaoh and the slavery under the Egyptians. As far as the first part of the book is concerned, the title

Exodus is comprehensive. But although this title is good, it can cause difficulty for many readers, because it may give them the impression that this book is merely concerned with coming out from under the tyranny of Satan. This title does not include the goal, or the consummation, of this book. Consummately, the second book of the Old Testament is on the building of God's dwelling place on earth.

In this book many of today's Christians care only for the exodus, not for the building of the tabernacle. In those places where the Scriptures are studied and expounded, can you hear a message concerning the building of God's dwelling place on earth in this age? Many believers have the concept that the building of God is in the heavens and only in the future.

The book of Exodus has forty chapters, not only fourteen chapters. According to the title of this book, Exodus should conclude with chapter fourteen, after the exodus from Egypt was accomplished and the people were safely on the other side of the sea, dancing and praising the Lord. In the experience of many Christians, the book of Exodus does conclude with chapter fourteen. Before you came into the recovery, how many chapters, according to your experience, were there in the book of Exodus for you? Many Christians have gone only as far as chapter twelve; others, to chapter fourteen; and certain seeking Christians, all the way to chapter twenty-four. The more experienced believers have enjoyed the waters at Elim, the manna from heaven, and the living water from the cleft rock, they have engaged in the warfare against Amalek, and they have been brought into intimate fellowship with God at Mount Sinai. Some Christians do treasure Exodus 15 through 24 and have even written hymns to express their experience.

In this Life-study we have given many messages on chapters nineteen through twenty-four, chapters which present a complete view of the fellowship between God's redeemed people and the redeeming God. At the beginning of this fellowship in chapter nineteen, there was a cloud of thick darkness. But in chapter twenty-four the atmosphere is changed, and the sky becomes clear. Exodus 24:10 says, "And they looked upon the God of Israel: and there was under His feet as it were a paved work of transparent sapphire, and as it were the body of heaven in its clearness." Such a vision was unprecedented. Never before had anyone seen God under a clear and transparent heaven. Here we are told that those on the mountain with Moses not only saw the God of Israel, but that they even saw God's feet.
