DETAILED PRAYER BURDENS

International: The Lord's Move in India

- ☪ Pray that the Lord can strengthen and build up the local churches in the major cities in India by the constitution of the ministry of the age, the rich experiences of life and establishment of the practice of the God-ordained way for the sake of His testimony.
- ☪ Pray that the Lord can continue to spread into many more cities in India, especially in the North India that many sons of peace and seekers of the truths can be gained for His move in His economy.
- ☪ Pray that the Lord can gain a young generation from the campuses in the major cities and that many young ones will be released to join the Full-Time Training in New Delhi this coming July. Pray that the Lord would release at least 25 new trainees this coming term.

National: Labor on the College Campuses — Team Reunion in Irving, TX, May 17 - 20

- ☪ This week saints involved with the labor on the college campuses will gather in Irving, Texas for a time of mutual fellowship and learning.

Pray also that they all will choose to be transferred into His kingdom in a definite way and their baptism will be full of meaning and impact, giving them a good beginning for their Christian life and church life.

MINISTRY EXCERPTS REGARDING HOSPITALITY

In [1 Peter 4:9] Peter says, "Be hospitable to one another without murmuring." Peter wrote this verse according to his experience. He knew that hospitality can be troublesome. Because the saints love the Lord, the church, and the ministry, they are willing to extend hospitality to those visiting from other localities. However, the saints who show hospitality may be hospitable with murmuring. Some may complain about how a saint who once stayed with them conducted himself. This is murmuring. I hope that our hospitality will be without murmuring. Verse 10 continues, "Each one according as he has received a gift, ministering it among yourselves as good stewards of the varied grace of God." The varied grace of God, as the all grace in 5:10, is the rich supply of life, which is the Triune God ministered into us in many aspects (2 Cor. 13:14; 12:9). As good stewards, by the gift we have received we should minister to the church and the saints such grace, not merely doctrine or any vain thing. The fact that verse 10 is the direct continuation of verse 9 indicates that even showing hospitality is a gift. Showing hospitality to others gives us an excellent opportunity to minister to them the varied grace of God. You need grace to prepare food for your guests, to provide transportation for them, and to help them with special needs. It takes patience to wait for them if they are late. By this we see that in our hospitality we need to minister the varied grace of God to others. (Life-Study of 1 Peter, Chapter 27, Section 3)

HOSPITALITY FOR SAINTS FROM INDIA FOR THE SUMMER TRAINING

For the Summer Training in July the church in Irvine will have the opportunity to host saints coming from India. We are expecting around 15 saints to come and we would like to provide hospitality for them all in the homes of the saints. Having these saints stay in our homes and participate in the local morning study sessions will provide more opportunity for blending and fellowship with them.

If you are able to provide hospitality for one or two of these saints please contact the brother in your district who is responsible for training registration. May the Lord's Body be richly blessed by this "circulation" of fellowship in His Body through our providing hospitality to these saints.
