DETAILED PRAYER BURDENS

International: Germany

This weekend (June 8 – 10), nearly 700 saints from Germany, Switzerland and Austria gathered for a conference in Bad Wildungen, Germany.

- ☉ Pray for the long-lasting impact of the speaking and of the saints' blending experience to solidify the one expression and testimony of Christ in German-speaking Europe.
- ☉ Pray for the gaining of many local Germans, university students, and an unprecedented number of Arabic speaking contacts.

Local: Irvine Summer School of Truth (June 10-15)

- ☉ Pray for the Lord's blessing, the young people's openness, high attendance in the main sessions and afternoon activities, and the ministering of the word as food by the speaking brothers and serving ones.
- ☉ Pray for the Lord to supply the serving ones, including parents who are serving for the first time, and give them much enjoyment.

- ☉ Pray that all the activities would help the young people get to know one another, break down any existing walls, and begin to foster genuine, long-lasting companionships.

Church-Wide Blending Meeting on Lord's Day, June 16

- ☉ Pray for the one accord in the church in Irvine and for the Body consciousness to develop in all the saints, across districts, halls and languages.
- ☉ Pray that this gathering would give the young people the sense of being part of the larger church family, and give the saints more consciousness of, and burden for, these youngest members of the Body of Christ.

Summer Bible Camp (June 17 – 22)

- ☉ Pray for the cherishing of our children in the upcoming Summer Bible Camp.
- ☉ Pray for good preparation and coordination, and that the serving ones would be willing to be blended, harmonized and adjusted for the sake of the one accord.

CORPORATE PRAYER MEETING ON JUNE 11

The church's prayer meeting this Tuesday, June 11, will be corporate at Hall 1 with the following arrangements:

- ☉ Hall 1 English-speaking: East side of main hall (nearest courtyard)
- ☉ Hall 2 English-speaking: Multi-purpose room
- ☉ Hall 3 English-speaking: West side of main hall (where Chinese-speaking saints usually meet)
- ☉ Chinese-speaking: large downstairs room in house
- ☉ Korean-speaking: upstairs meeting room (in main hall)

The Chinese-speaking and Korean-speaking saints will distribute themselves among the three English-speaking meetings for the second half of the prayer meeting.

The YP will also be distributed roughly in equal parts among the three English-speaking meetings.

Please come together corporately to offer the prayer of the age and a sacrifice of praise to the Lord in and from His glorious victory!

MINISTRY EXCERPT

A PORTRAIT OF THE CHURCH LIFE

The church life is portrayed by the pictures in 4:35—5:43 and 6:1-44. In the first picture we have storms, demons, hogs, disease, and death. Nevertheless, into such a deplorable situation the Slave-Savior comes to subdue the rebellion, cast out the demons, clear up the unclean industry, heal the sickness, and raise the dead. As a result, we all are healed, enlivened, and revived. According to the second picture, we shall be despised and experience rejection, hatred, injustice, and martyrdom. Nevertheless, even in such a situation the crowd is satisfied. Everyone is fed and made happy. We offer everything we have to the Lord, and then we receive from Him much more than we offered. This is the kingdom life, the church life. We are very much blessed to be in the kingdom life today. Although we seem to lose everything, actually in the Lord we gain everything.

In chapter four of the Gospel of Mark we have the seed of the kingdom. In a previous message we considered the history of the growth and development of this seed. We saw that from God's point of view the kingdom is the development of Himself as the seed sown into us. But from Satan's point of view the kingdom is the subduing of rebellion. This is the significance of the record of the subduing of the storm in chapter four coming immediately after the Lord's teaching concerning the kingdom of God. Then in chapter five we have the demonstration of the kingdom in the Slave-Savior's casting out demons, clearing up the unclean industry, and healing the death-sickness. By the coming of one Person, Jesus Christ, God incarnate, five categories of negative things are dealt with: rebellion, demons, unclean industry, disease, and death. Praise the Lord for this wonderful picture of the kingdom of God!

A second picture of the kingdom is portrayed in 6:1-44. In this picture we see the attitude of the world toward the Slave-Savior. Valuing those with a high status, the worldly people despise and reject the gospel. In the account of the execution of John the Baptist, we see the darkness and injustice of worldly politics. This is truly a picture of today's world.

The world despises the gospel and rejects it. However, the Lord Jesus is not disappointed by this. Instead, as the rejected One, He sent out the twelve. Then after the martyrdom of the forerunner of the gospel, the Lord gained the five thousand, fed them, and satisfied them.

After the enemy kills one, the Lord produces five thousand. This has been the history in the Lord's move throughout the centuries, and I believe this will continue to be repeated among us.
